

RULES

The show chairman and committee reserve the final and absolute right to interpret these rules to settle and determine all matters, questions, and difference arising form or connected to the Southern Middle Tennessee Boer Goat Show.

Any exhibitor who violates the rules will forfeit all privileges and be subject to such penalties as the committee may order.

This competition is open to all goats registered with ABGA. All goat(s) under 3 months must have a stamped duplicate or faxed application showing the date received by ABGA.

All goat(s) will show by age according to registration certificate.

Health Requirements: An official certification of veterinary inspection valid within 30 days of the show must accompany the animal(s). If any animal(s) are sick in any way the exhibitor will be asked to remove the sick animal(s) off the premises.

Liability: The exhibitor is liable for any damage that their animal(s) may incur. Southern Middle Tennessee Boer Goat Show assumes no responsibility of any injuries, lost items, or stolen items. If any animal(s) is a threat to the public the exhibitor will be asked to remove the animal(s) from the premises.

Poor sportsmanship will not be tolerated.
The judge's decision is final.
